Hague, November 23.

The following Resolution of the States General, was pass'd in their Assembly the 13th of last Month.

THE Report being heard of M. Tullocken and others of their High Mightinesses Deputies for foreign Affairs, who were commission'd the 1st of this Instant October to examine and give their Opinion of a Letter written by M. Goes their High Mightinesses late Envoy extraordinary at the Court of his Majesty the King of Denmark, at present here, in which he acquaints their High Mightinesses that he could procure no Satisfaction for the Insult done him the 26th of June 1704 at one of the Gates of Copenhagen by the searching of his Baggage, as also by the Pretention form'd for some Time to open his Letters; After Deliberation thereon, 'tis thought fit and resolv'd, that it shall be represented by a Letter to the King of Denmark, that M. Goes being return'd hither has reported to their High Mightinesses among other things the Inclination of his said Majesty to maintain all good Friendship with the State, that their High Mightinesses setting a high Value on his Majesty's Friendship are extremely pleas'd with such his Report, and that on their Part they will contribute all that can be requir'd of them for preserving a mutual good Correspondence; that their High Mightinesses well hop'd to have been inform'd that a reasonable End was put to the Affair of searching the Baggage of the said M. Goes at one of the Gates of Copenhagen by some Officers of the Customs on the 26th of July 1704, in his Return to Copenhagen from Court; but that it griev'd their High Mightinesses to hear, that after more than Two Years the least Satisfaction has not been given, notwithstanding the many Instances made by the said M. Goes by express and repeated Order from their High Mightinesses; that on the contrary, the foresaid Officers of the Customs proceeding further, have pretended in an unusual and unbecoming Manner, that the said M. Goes should, in their Presence open Letters directed to him, to the end they might see whether any thing liable to pay Custom was in them, and Letters were sent him from the Post-house broke open; that their High Mightinesses think it needless to represent afresh to his Majesty the Injustice of such Proceedings, it having been frequently and sufficiently done by the said M. Goes pursuant to their High Mightinesses Orders, as being contrary to all Right, and never offered to any foreign Minister, nor is there any other Ground for it than an Ordinance of his Majesty to his own Subjects, but that Ordinance can by no means affect foreign Ministers, seeing it would subject them to the Jurisdiction of his Majesty's Officers and Judges, which being repugnant to the Rights of Nations, cannot be the Intention of his said Majesty: That their High Mightinesses promise themselves, from his Majesty's known Equity in other Cases, that he will not refuse the Justice he does others, to the said M. Goes, who on several Occasions has given Proofs of his Zeal for his Majesty's Interest: That therefore their High Mightinesses do once more friendly desire, that his Majesty will signify such Displeasure against the said Officers of the Customs, on Account of the foremention'd Insults done by them to the Minister of this State, as may shew that in the said indecent Proceeding they went beyond his Majesty's Intention, and that they may be deterr'd from offering the like hereafter; and that he will not suffer that to be done to their High Mightinesses Minister which is offer'd to no other Ministers, and which he would be loth to see done to his own Minister here at the Hague; and therefore they expect from his Majesty's Equity a final and satisfactory Resolution on this Affair: Lastly, That a Copy of this Letter shall be deliver'd to M. Goes, who at his Return to the Court of Denmark is to do the best he can to bring this Matter to a good Issue.

An Extract of a Letter written from New-York to a Merchant of this City.

New-York, Oct. 14. 1706. We have receiv'd News from Carolina by a Sloop that came from thence the 29th of last Month. The Account brought by that Ship, is, That towards the End of July last 5 Sail of French Ships (belonging to M. d' Iberville's Squadron) appear'd upon that Coast: They had touch'd at St. Augustine, and were told there that so great a Mortality had been in Carolina that most of the People were dead; and this false Rumour encourag'd them to go thither. They went over the Bar of Carolina and thence up to the Town, which they were very much surpriz'd to see so well fortified. They sent a Boat ashore to Sir Nathaniel Johnson the Governour, to summons him in the Name of the King of France and Spain to deliver up the Town and Country, and all the People Prisoners of War, to one Monsieur le Febvre their General, allowing him an Hour's Time to return his Answer. Sir Nathaniel told the Person who deliver'd this Message, that he might perceive the Place was not in so bad a Condition as to surrender on such a Summons, and that he did not want an Hour, nor one Minute to resolve upon his Answer, which was to make such a Defence as he ought, and immediately bid him get him gone and tell those so who had sent him. They made no Attempt upon the Town, but landed about 300 Men to the Northward of the Town on the other side of the River, which Party burnt a House and a Sloop that was upon the Stocks: Sir Nathaniel Johnson dispatch'd 2 Companies thither, who surpriz'd the Enemy, kill'd 14 of them and took 120 Prisoners; the rest escap'd aboard their Vessels, which which made the best of their Way over the Bar, being pursued by some Vessels that were mann'd out, but who could not get up with them. At the same Time the Governour receiv'd Advice, that one of their Ships had landed Men in Boon's Bay; whereupon he sent Forces thither, some by Land some by Sea, which took the said Ship and all the Men to the Number of 180. Sir Nathaniel Johnson has sent hither to my Lord Cornbury a full Relation of all that pass'd, a Copy of which I shall bring over with me.
